
Glenn M. Gottlieb

Mediator & Attorney

MEDIATOR'S PROFILE

Glenn M. Gottlieb is a trained, professional Mediator, with a more than 35-year background in business and transactional legal practice. Mr. Gottlieb has successfully mediated hundreds of matters involving personal injury, premises liability, employment (wage & hour; termination; discrimination; harassment), intellectual property disputes, real property and construction defect, breach of contract, fraud, commercial disputes, collections, landlord-tenant, insurance coverage, unfair competition and bankruptcy issues, divorce and family disputes, and co-owner and inter-generational conflicts. (Non-exclusive list)

Mr. Gottlieb has both been in private practice with Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, one of the nation's largest and most prestigious law firms, and in-house, as the General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Wyle Laboratories, a diversified, New York Stock Exchange-listed company. He also acted as General Counsel of MiniMed, Inc., a medical device manufacturer and research company, and was associated with Rifkind & Sterling, a Beverly-Hills-based, boutique securities law firm. Mr. Gottlieb has represented a broad variety of individuals and small-, medium- and large-sized business organizations, providing ongoing business guidance, as well as transactional legal services.

Mr. Gottlieb's broad base of experience enables him to bring a practical, real-world orientation to mediating disputes that was honed during his legal career. Having served in a senior executive position with a major, U.S. corporation, in addition to his role as legal counsel to countless private clients, gives him a unique perspective and ability to utilize his creative, problem-solving skills and results-oriented approach to the successful resolution of conflicts.

Mr. Gottlieb is a current member of the Mediator Panels of the Beverly Hills Bar Association Mediator Referral Service (founding member); the California Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, and U.S. District Court, Central District of California. He served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Southern California Mediation Association and the former "Party Pay" panel of the Los Angeles Superior Court.

Glenn Gottlieb is a graduate of Berkeley Law (Boalt Hall), University of California, Berkeley (J.D., Order of the Coif, 1978), having served as Note and Comment Editor on the California Law Review and Law Clerk for Professor Paul Mishkin. He subsequently clerked for United States District Court Judge Fred J. Cassibry in New Orleans, Louisiana. Mr. Gottlieb graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of California, Santa Barbara (A.B., 1975) and did post-graduate studies at UCLA's prestigious Anderson Graduate School of Business Management (Certificate in Business Management, 1988).

Mr. Gottlieb is a native of Southern California and has been involved with many community-based organizations, including serving as a member of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of The Jewish Federation of Los Angeles, Vice President and a member of the Board of Directors of Bet Tzedek Legal Services and member of the Board of the Los Angeles Urban League. Mr. Gottlieb has also been a Vice President and member of the Board of Trustees of Leo Baeck Temple, Los Angeles, California, and served on the Advisory Board of the School of Communal Service of the Los Angeles Campus of the Hebrew Union College/Jewish Institute of Religion. Mr. Gottlieb is proud to have been an active "Big Brother" with the Jewish Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Los Angeles with four "Little Brothers."

Mr. Gottlieb was the 2007 recipient of the Ameinu organization's Tzedek ("Justice") Award for his history of service to the Los Angeles Jewish community.
